COLLECTION SUMMARY
of the
E.E.TOWNSEND COLLECTION

The E. E. Townsend Collection was originally donated to the West Texas Historical and Scientific Society's historical collection in 1935. The papers were donated by Mr. Townsend, an active member in the Society at that time. Mr. Townsend continued to add to the collection until his death in 1948. He included the papers of Alice Augusta Jones Townsend, his wife, after her death in 1940. Although donation records are scant, parts of the collection, no doubt, were assembled after Mr. Townsend's death. In 1968, the West Texas Historical and Scientific Society transferred its historical collections to Sul Ross State College and thereby the collection became the property of the University.

Everett Ewing Townsend was the third of six children born to Captain William Wallace Townsend and Margaret Jimmerson Phillips (Townsend) in Colorado County, Texas, October 20, 1871. Townsend joined Company E, Frontier Battalion of the Texas Rangers in 1891. He became a Deputy U. S. Marshall in 1893 and served under R. C. (Dick) Ware, who killed the outlaw Sam Bass. In 1894, Townsend joined the U. S. Customs Service and was stationed at Presidio, Texas. As a customs inspector, he traveled widely and in 1895 met Alice Augusta Jones (1874-1940) near Marathon, Texas. They married in 1895 and had one child, Margaret (1896-1957) He resigned from the Customs Service in 1899 and after another brief stint with the Rangers became a ranch manager in 1900.

Townsend was manager of the Elsinore Cattle Company's E. L. Ranch until 1916. At that time he invested in his own ranch in Pecos County. In 1918, Townsend was elected sheriff of Brewster County and served in that post until 1924. While sheriff he also served as the county tax collector. After this period of public life, he devoted himself to private business and civic affairs.

In 1932, Townsend was elected to the state legislature and thereby began efforts to create a state, and later national, park in southern Brewster County. In 1933, Townsend and Abilene representative R. M. (Bob) Wagstaff introduced House Bill 771, calling for creation of a Texas Canyons State Park. The bill passed and was signed into law by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson on May 27, 1933. This began a ten-year period of legislation and land purchase which resulted in a transfer of land between the State of Texas and the federal Government for Big Bend National Park in 1943. Townsend was an active promoter of the Park throughout this period. In 1947 he became Commissioner of the Big Bend National Park and continued working to develop the Park until his death on November 19, 1948.

The collection was found in different states of order and in different locations around the campus. The majority of papers were in the library; however, many were found at the Museum. All papers were consolidated and an arrangement system was established based on a general existent order in the papers. As a result, the papers were arranged based on Mr. Townsend's career periods with the exception of a large group of personal papers which were placed at the front of the collection.
Appendix I. 1910-1972, of the E. E. Townsend Collection represents a folder of material found after inventorying the main collection. For full information concerning the collection, see: Collection Summary of the E. E. Townsend Collection. Of particular interest within this group of papers is some material dealing with the Townsend-Van Sickle case. The shooting of Hatley Van Sickle by E. E. Townsend resulted in the trial of Mr. Townsend for murder.

Materials were arranged by general type as shown on the Inventory of Donations sheet. The material of Appendix I may be found as cited below, and the material is housed in Box #10 of the E. E. Townsend Collection.

Genealogy, 1770-1957
This genealogy is for the family of Everett Ewing Townsend.

Everett Ewing Townsend was born on October 20, 1871, in Colorado City, Texas, and died on November 19, 1948, in Alpine, Texas.

His great-grandfather (on his father’s mother’s side), David Ewing, born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1770 (died 1818) was a slave-trader between the African coast and the United States until the outbreak of the War of 1812.

Thomas Townsend, Townsend’s paternal great-grandfather, married Elizabeth Stapleton of Georgia, and together they had eight sons and one daughter.

Light Thomas Townsend and Emma A.W. Ewing, Townsend’s paternal grandparents, were married on January 20, 1830. They had two sons, Joseph Madison, who was born April 2, 1831, and William Wallace (January 16, 1833-May 29, 191). Emma died in the winter of 1834 and Light died in 1838. The two boys were then brought up by their Grandmother Ewing. They came to Texas about 1859 and fought in the Civil War.

In January of 1864, Captain William Wallace Townsend married Addie Woolsey in Colorado County, Texas. They had one son, Addie Web Townsend (June 19, 1866) and an unidentified daughter. Captain Townsend lost his wife and daughter in Tampico, Mexico in 1867. The boy, Web, survived and Captain Townsend brought him back to the States on horseback. On November 2, 1870, Captain Townsend married Margaret Jimmerson Phillips, a widow. She had one child, Mary Henry Phillips, from a previous marriage. Six children were born to Captain and Mrs. Townsend. These were according to age: Mary Henry Phillips, Addie Web, Everett Ewing, William Henry, Annie Leah, Joe Beldford, Olive Emma, and Margaret (Madge) Long.

Everett Ewing Townsend held a number of jobs before he enlisted in Company E, Frontier Battalion of the Texas Rangers in 1891 when he was 19. He stated 18 months in the Ranger Service. For a short time in 1893-1894, Townsend served as a deputy U.S. Marshall under R.C. (Dick) Ware, the man who killed the outlaw Sam Bass.
Townsend joined the U. S. Customs Service and was stationed at Presidio, Texas, in 1894. He was an Inspector at the age of 23. On February 18, 1895, he met Alice Augusta Jones near Marathon, Texas. They courted for about a year and married on November 1, 1895, in Valentine, Texas. They made their home on the banks of the Rio Grande near Presidio, Texas. Mrs. Townsend used to accompany her husband on horseback when he would go on scouting trips, and consequently, during their first year of marriage, she rode over a thousand miles. On November 11, 1896, a daughter, Margaret, was born to them. Margaret Townsend Hudgins died on March 15, 1957.

Everett Ewing Townsend resigned from the Customs Service and re-enlisted in the Texas Rangers from 1899 to 1900. He resigned and took a job on a cattle ranch near Ft. Stockton, Texas. Everett and his family lived there in a tent for over a year. He was then offered the position of manager of the ranch, known as the Elsinore, or EL Ranch, on July 4, 1900. He served as ranch manager for 16 years.

After leaving the EL Ranch in 1916, E. E. Townsend invested in a 12,000 acre ranch of his own near Alpine, Texas.

Townsend became sheriff of Brewster County on November 11, 1918. He was re-elected to three terms and served until 1924. After this, he became a private businessman and civic leader for about eight years.

In 1932, Townsend was elected to the Texas State Legislature. On March 2, 1933, Bob Wagstaff and Townsend introduced the bill to make the Big Bend area a state park. The bill was passed by both houses and approved by Governor Ferguson on October 27, 1933. After this, E. E. Townsend worked for more than ten years to make the Big Bend State Park a National Park. It became a part of the National Park System on September 5, 1943.

In 1942, upon the death of Allie, he married Ada Blocker. She was from a well-known ranching family in the San Antonio area.

In 1947, E. E. Townsend was given the title of Commissioner of the Big Bend National Park. Townsend is also known as the "Father of the Big Bend National Park."

Genealogy 1835-1940

This genealogy concerns the family of Alice Augusta Jones Townsend. Alice Augusta Jones was born on November 11, 1874, in Gonzales, Texas, and died on May 26, 1940, at Nix Hospital in San Antonio, Texas.

Alice's grandfather was General Augustus Harris Jones, who came to Texas when it was still part of Mexico. He was a lieutenant in the Texas forces that captured Goliad on the night of October 9, 1835. He was commissioned a Brigadier General of Texas Militia in the Mexican War under General Zachary Taylor. General Jones also had a plantation near Gonzales, named China Grove, on which he owned Negro slaves.

Allie, as she was called by all those who knew her, was the daughter of Alice Victoria Hollingsworth and James Cunningham Jones. They had two sons and two daughters: Alice Augusta, Marian Carter, William E. and Augustus H. (Gus) Jones. Allie's father, James C. Jones, was born in Gonzales County, Texas, on July 21, 1846, and died on June 9, 1882, from a lung injury that he received during the Civil War. Her father served as Sheriff of Gonzales County after the war ended until his death.

Allie's mother, Alice Victoria Hollingsworth, was born in Louisiana in 1849 and died in 1886. Alice Victoria was left an orphan at the age of three and was adopted by "Grandma" Law, an English lady. When Allie's mother died, Allie was twelve years old.

Allie came to Brewster County in 1893. Her brother, A. H. (Gus) Jones, was a Ranger in Company "D" of the Texas Rangers under a cousin, Captain Frank Jones, who was killed near Ysleta, Texas in July 1893.

Allie taught school at Marathon, Texas. She met Everett Ewing Townsend on February 18, 1895, in a blizzard, near Marathon. Exactly one month later, Everett proposed to her and Allie accepted. He gave her an engagement ring on June 3, 1895, in San Antonio, Texas. On July 25, 1895, E. E. Townsend was given a new station at the San Carlos Coal Mines, about 25 miles from Valentine, Texas. In October of 1895, E. E. Townsend exchanged stations with John F. Green, who was in Presidio, in order to get a house there so that he and Allie could get married.

NOTE: Write legibly or print!

Allie and Everett were married on November 1, 1895, in Valentine, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson. On their honeymoon they rode a stagecoach from Marfa to Presidio. They lived near Presidio, Texas, and Allie would occasionally ride with Everett on his scouting trips. A year after they were married, they had a baby girl named Margaret, who was born on November 11, 1896. After Margaret's birth, Allie developed tuberculosis, which she overcame. Margaret was married to Phillip F. Hudgins on December 16, 1917, in San Antonio, Texas. On November 1, 1928, they had a son and named him Philip Townsend Hudgins.

On February 27, 1934, H.S.R. No. 2 was passed by the House of Representatives, honoring Alice A. Townsend and naming her an honorary member of the Ranger, Force, assigned to the Company of Captain R. W. Aldrich.

Allie and Everett were married for 42 years until she died in 1940.
