Collection Summary
of the
Harry Warren Papers 1835-1932

The Harry Warren Papers were purchased by the West Texas Historical and Scientific Society on February 1, 1935 from Anacleto (Clayton) Warren, Mary Nancy (Warren) Elmendorf, and Helen Rosalie Warren. The purchase contained papers and 200 books, including manuscript material relating to the Indians of Mississippi. The Society donated their historical collections to the Archives of the Big Bend, Sul Ross State University in 1968.

Harry Warren was born July 17, 1859 in Waterford, Mississippi to Dr. William Calloway Warren and Mary Jane Bradford Warren. He attended private and public schools in Mississippi, entering the Preparatory Department of the University of Mississippi at Oxford in the fall of 1875. Harry graduated from the University of Mississippi in June of 1881 with a bachelor's degree in philosophy. In 1882 he began his teaching career as an elementary teacher in Maverick County. In 1889 he was elected as Principal of the Carrizo Springs Public School in Dimmit County, Texas. In December of 1890 he served as attorney and counselor-at-law for Maverick County.

He was a teacher in the Cooney Public School district in Soccorro, New Mexico, in 1891. From 1894 to 1900 he taught in the Lone Star Public School district at Safford, Arizona. He was Secretary of the Enterprise Canal Company at Safford for 1895 and 1896. November 5, 1902 was elected Justice of the Peace for Precinct 7 of Presidio County, Texas. In 1904 he returned to Eagle Pass as a teacher. February 15, 1905 he was appointed Inspector of Customs of the U.S. Customs Service for the district of Saluria at Eagle Pass, Texas. On November 15, 1906, he was appointed Deputy Collector and Inspector of Customs. He resigned from the U.S. Customs Service in October of 1909. June, 1910 he married Juliana Jaquez at Candelaria, Texas. On September 6, 1910 Harry's 2A2 brand for cattle, goats, hogs, and sheep was registered in Presidio County. September 17, 1910 he was elected Justice of the Peace and Ex-Officio Notary Public for Presidio County. He bought a ranch near Pilares, Chihuahua, Mexico and taught in Pilares.

A son, Anacleto (Clayton), was born July 13, 1911 at Candelaria, Texas. Harry and Juliana were divorced at Marfa, Texas in 1912 but later remarried by common law. In 1913 Harry taught at the Cienega School in Presidio County and was a dealer in ranch supplies in Valentine. A daughter, Mary Nancy, was born March 20, 1915 at Valentine. He farmed and taught near Pilares until 1918. A second daughter, Helen Rosalie, was born January 9, 1919 at the Morales Ranch near Pilares. June of 1919, Harry was appointed Deputy of Jeff Davis County, Texas. In early 1920 he was employed as a cotton picker in Gadsen, Arizona. He taught in the Island School of Fabens, Texas in August of 1920. Juliana signed a contract for separation on August 1, 1922, leaving the children to Harry. In January of 1926 Harry taught in the Vaughn Public School district of Santa Cruz County, Arizona. He was a teacher at the Lajitas, Texas school in Brewster County, Texas in August of 1926. July of 1928 and May of 1929 he taught at the Loma Paloma School in Presidio County, Texas.

Harry Warren was a researcher and writer of American history. He wrote many articles and manuscripts concerning the North American Indians - the Chicksaws, Creek, and Mississippi Indians. He was a writer of Indian, Mississippi, and Texas history, and recorded events and incidents occurring in the Big Bend region such as bandit attacks on ranches, border problems, murders, and wars. He also studied family genealogy extensively.

The material is housed in folders contained in five archival boxes. Newspapers and large manuscripts have been placed in a newspaper box at the end of the collection. Oversize Scrapbooks have been placed at the end of the Collection along with oversize manuscripts. The Papers are arranged in the boxes and file folders according to type of material and chronologically within those categories. The Literary Productions are organized alphabetically by title. The arrangement is as follows:

Correspondence 1877-1927 and undated
