A DANCE OF HAPPINESS

Barbeyt-Imose

Christmas dance on W. A. Drake's farm was attended by Harry Murphy and Minne Oleson. They spent the day dancing, eating, and having a good time. The dance was held on Saturday night, December 21st, and was attended by about 60 people. The music was provided by the local band, and the guests enjoyed a variety of dances, including the waltz, the foxtrot, and the polka. The evening concluded with a grand finale of the hoedown, which everyone enjoyed. The evening was a great success and everyone left happy. The Bridegroom and Bride were the center of attention, and the guests joined in the celebration. The dance was a success, and everyone had a great time. The couple was very happy and the evening was a great success. The dance was a great success and everyone had a great time. The couple was very happy and the evening was a great success.
