Marfa business plans contest for homecoming

MARFA - Presidio County Abstract Co. and Alamo Real Estate are getting Marfa High School in full swing now, and they want you to catch it, too. They've created a display in their window with pictures from the school's annuals. Stop by the businesses and play 'Guess Who.' Entries are due by 5 p.m. Friday, and the winner will be announced at Friday's football game.

Early balloting now underway

PRESIDIO COUNTY - Early voting by personal appearance began Wednesday and runs through Friday, November 4, in the November general election. In Presidio, early voting will be conducted at the Presidio County Courthouse Annex.

In Marfa, early voting will be conducted at the Marfa Chamber of Commerce, 202 Main St.

Applications for ballots by mail must be received no later than the close of business on Tuesday, November 1, by writing Ramona Lara, early voting clerk, Box 789, Marfa, TX 79843.

Gallego, Garza to debate Monday

'Ships of the desert' make port in Marfa

Camels will be at Marfa Elementary School Friday

By BILL SANDIDGE

MARFA - Ships of the desert are sailing the sands between Texas and California for the first time in 137 years in a recreation of history and a modern spiritual odyssey of a New Mexico couple, their son and four camels.

Howdy Fowler, a non-doxen Christian minister, his wife, Yosemite, both of Puxex Indian descent, and their son, Toby, from Tulare, Calif., are traveling the route of the historic U.S. Army camel caravans from San Antonio to Los Angeles in 1857 when 25 camels combed by Lt. Edward Fergus- \nand three dromedaries, including a rare white animal, arrived in Marfa last Wednesday.

They'll be at Marfa Elementary School at 9 a.m. Friday in the vacant lot next to the school. On Monday, they will be at the Valentine schools.

The Fowlers, who are staying in Marfa for 10 days, said they hope to be in Deming, N.M., by Thanksgiving and Phoenix, Ariz., by Christmas.

Port Davis during the late 1850s was visited by three different camel caravans, with the 1857 camel caravan as part of the U.S. Army experiment testing the suitability of the camel for use in the arid southwest, and one group, based briefly at Fort Davis, spent several months in the area exploring the Big Bend region.

By all accounts the experiment was a total success, and the camel proved itself to be very well adapted to the rugged terrain, carrying loads impossible for other animals, and able to go without water for days.

Marfa chamber shops for store to replace Winn's

Marfa Chamber of Commerce directors met last month to discuss what to do about the void that will be created in downtown when Winn's closes shops later this year.

We've got too many businesses closing, and we've got to do something," chamber First Vice President Robert Baker said.

Directors decided on a shotgun approach, sending indentation letters and information packets to several variety store chains, including Perry's and Dollar General, which recently opened in Alpine where Winn's used to be.

Perry's already is located in Alpine and Presidio, and directors said they hoped that was a good sign since the variety store chain runs an inventory truck through Marfa to service its Presidio and

The rest of the story

By STATE REP. PETER G. GALLEGO

When you run for office, you hear many surprising and negative things. Any politician worth making everyone happy. And there are always people who tell only one side of a story or only half of the truth. As a member of the Texas Legislature, I take the blame for many things. However, I will not take the blame for the decision to put the low-level radioactive dump near Sierra Blanca. I want the truth to be known - as a state representative, I have not, do not, and will not support any hazardous, nuclear, or toxic waste dump in our area.

I have represented Hudspeth County since 1993. The decision to put the low-level site outside Sierra Blanca was made before then. The only decision made as Hudspeth County's representative was not to put where to put the site. The decision I made concerned who gets to use the site if it ever opens. I applied and support those who continue the fight against the low-level radioactive waste site. But if we win a victory in this battle, it will not take place in the Legislature. The odds are stacked against us. If we win, it will be because of the expert testimony of scientists, not elected officials.

Fighting the low-level dump is Plan A. However, what happens if Plan A fails and we lose the fight? Do we have other options? Do we have a Plan B? Unfortunately, under federal law, if we lose the battle, if the low-level dump opens, Texas could be OBLIGATED to take waste from anyone who wants to ship it here. In other words, the other 49 states plus the District of Columbia could make Hudspeth County, Texas, the nation's dumping ground. To me, it's bad enough that the rest of Texas might ship its radioactive waste to Sierra Blanca. The Legislature does not agree. Even so, they did insist it is important to stop other states from sending their trash to us. The one way to get around federal law on this issue is to form a compact with other states.

By forming a compact, Texas can limit who gets to use the low-level dump if it opens. That way, we, the people, can protect our state from sending our trash out of state.

Different states produce different amounts of waste. States like Pennsylvania, New York, and California produce a great deal of radioactive waste. I don't want these states to have to be able to dump their radioactive wa...

Local KIA's honored in memorial in Midland

By JEFFREY MCDONALD

For more than six years, a small group of volunteers have pursued the dream of building a memorial to the individuals of West Texas that served during the Vietnam War.

On Saturday, November 12, at 9 a.m., that dream will become reality.

The initial vision, conceived by Randy Williams, a local vet who served in Vietnam, was to take the site occupied by the Midland Air National Guard building and turn it into a memorial for Midland's Vietnam veterans.

Construction of the memorial began in 1993 and was completed last year. The memorial is a tribute to those who served and those who did not return.

Included in the list of those killed in battle is Midland tradition, "Dead and Buried," and "The Troubles with the Chris­ mast People," both by Joaquin T. Jackson, in the role of Alfredo Stano, designated his favor­ ity in "Nun'sense," "A Sleep of Prisons and "Crimes of the Heart," with personal inscriptions will be provided, a tangible connection to those who have served and those who have survived.

The staffs for the United States, Texas and the POW/MIA Flag will be on display.

The site will include an 80-foot replica of the state of Texas and its national flags, Texas and the POVAMIA flags, and a park to be constructed and posited in the place of the site.

The memorial is located in the 1960 block of West Texas, the mid­city area of Midland International Airport and west of the headquarters of the Midland Air National Guard.\n

The Fowlers describe their admiration for the camel, to conserve and to live more in harmony with the environment. Maybe it is time that this country recognizes the camel as one of its own, a prodigal son that has seen the deserts of the world deeply affecting the lives and cultures of many nations, yet forever a stranger in its own land.

In 1856 and 1857 seventy-five camels were brought by sailing vessel (with a specially rigged camel deck) by a joint Army-Navy commission and landed in Texas. Richards asks Zedillo about $50 limit

New poison control number now available

FAIR WEST TEXAS - Brew- er, Presidio, Jeff Davis, Cali- fornia and Hudspeth counties have recently received a new poi- son control number to use if one has questions about poisons.

The phone number allows for quick access to the Poison Con- trol Centers in the States of Texas which provide emergency infor- mation pertaining to hallucinatory and dangerous chemicals.

The new number is 1-800-POI- SON (764-7669). It is also available by dialing 711. If a person calls 711 the local area dispatcher will transfer a call to the poison control center automatically.

The Poison Control Center for Presidio County to receive grant from West Texas Council of Alcoholism & Drug Abuse

PRESIDIO COUNTY - A grant of $180,000 for Presidio County for the dissemination of sub- stance abuse information and other services was announced.

The West Texas Council of Al- coholism and Drug Abuse provides a variety of services for Brewster, Calhoun, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis and Presidio counties with a budget of $100,000.

Services include information dissemination, crisis interven- tion, screening, assessment, placement, follow-up, evalu- ation, problem identification and a 24-hour telephone information service.

BREWSTER, JEFF DAVIS, PRESIDIO COUNTIES - Retail sales tax issues checks were up big time for Brewster County and Jeff Davis County and a little for Alpine, but down for Presidio and Presidio, according to the state Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Tax checks for Texas are collected on August sales and reported to the state in September by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

ALPINE - This month’s check, $37,240, Oct. ’93, $36,523, +1.92%; year-to-date, $431,906, ’93 year-to-date, $412,440, +5.0%; tax levy, 1.5%.

PRESIDIO - This month’s check, $10,691, Oct. ’93, $10,105, +5.0%; year-to-date, $121,300, ’93 year-to-date, $125,250, +3.1%; tax levy, 1.5%.

The public is invited to a barbeque and rally honoring State Representative PETE P. GALLEGOS Our State Representative

PETE P. GALLEGOS
State Representative since 1985 and currently serving his fourth term in Congress;

- was not responsible for or did not support placing low-level dump in Sierra Blanca
- if low-level site opens, it would be required by federal law to take waste from Presidio and 10 other states plus the District of Columbia (unless Texas forms a compact with other states)
- if dump has to open, decided that 2 small states is better than 49 states of similar waste
- has more contributions from the district than anywhere else and has never taken money from any New York City lobbyist
- Decision to place low-level dump Sierra Blanca was made before he represented Hudspeth County
- Made decision to allow compact to proceed with Maine & Vermont (Question on vote: Why? Do we let 49 other states to dump on us or do we compact with 2 small states which produce relatively little waste
- Travels throughout the district very frequently to listen and assist constituents and maintain an open-door policy

The public is invited to a barbecue and rally honoring State Representative PETE P. GALLEGOS Our State Representative for the past four years and currently serving his fourth term in Congress;

Local board member earns master trustee designation

DALLAS - Marfa ISD trustee Randi Whitlock has earned the title of Master Trustee, becoming the fourth Marfa ISD board member and the first from the city to earn the designation.

Whitlock, along with the other three Master Trustees, will serve as trainers in the Texas Association of School Boards (TASB) Master School Board Member Program. The program is open to all school board members across the state, who have fulfilled 30 hours of training credit and have demonstrated leadership ability on their board and in their community.

Since last September - as part of their Leadership TASB training - the board members have completed a variety of projects with statewide impact involving writing, public speaking, decision making, and providing the extra credits that lead to the Master School Board member designation.

The five-part Leadership TASB curriculum includes such educational reform, government and politics, communications, and vocational diversity, with the 28-member group gaining leadership experience by participating in trainings as part of the 1994 Leadership TASB curriculum (SLI) in Austin June 18-19.

SLI is TASB's flagship training program for new and experienced board trustees from around the state.

Two members re-elected to Highland SWCD board

Ellery Auftengarten of Marfa and Allen Miller of Valentine were recently re-elected to the Highland Soil & Water Conservation District board of directors Oct. 11. Auftengarten represents Zone 1 of the district. Miller will represent Zone 2. Current members of the board of directors of the Highland SWCD are Gene West, Jack Sanders and Hector Morales. The purpose of the Highland SWCD, with headquarters in Marfa, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on agricultural lands within the district to aid as a voice for farmers, ranchers, and private community entities on conservation matters.

The district board of directors consists of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purpose.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator or other potential users of the SWCD’s programs.

THANK YOU

Friends have always been the sustaining force which has helped families endure periods of mourning and sorrow. Therefore, we thank our friends for the phone calls, food, and visits that we received during our recent loss.

We also thank Father Norman Bernstein, and Mr. Johnson and his staff.

Marfa History club begins busy year

The members of the Marfa History club met on 5 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 27 in the Parish Hall of St. Paul’s Episcopal Church.

New members, Chanyra Fawcett, Jane Sherry, Pat Medici, Cathy Connor, Judy Ledbetter, Carolyn Clark and Jean Baker were introduced and welcomed.

Routine business was conducted by Barbara Parners, president; "Caring Partners" names were drawn; plans for the annual book fair were discussed. The book fair is a service activity providing an opportunity for students and parents to purchase books and literature. Fall in the elementary school gym. Funds raised from this project go for scholarships presented by the club.

The Accelerated Reading Program sponsored by the elementary school library and the Marfa History Club was discussed as to additional awards that can be provided as students are reading regularly and meeting their goals.

League of Women Vote’s material was passed out to furnish in-depth information on all state and national offices in the local election.

Jade White introduced the program for the evening, Dr. Alice McClung of Midland, TPWC Western District President, and Kathryn Sien, immediate Past-President of the TPWC Western District. Both speakers spoke knowledgeably about their districts regarding the achievement and goals of honored women’s clubs nationally and locally. Hostesses for the evening were Barbara Sanders, Mary Quick and Clair Kelly who served delicious dessert refreshments.

Shorthorns fumble away Wink game

The Shorthorns fumbled away a Wink game in the second quarter becoming a Purple & White 1-1 in district play: The Wink team only showing up for the third. The Wink team drove 5 yards in nine plays, ending the drive with a field goal. Daniel Gray scored for the Horns-took over and threw an interception that was returned to the middle of the fourth quarter by Brooks Thode, giving the ball to the Wildcatters. The defense played well at times but the spirit was broken after so many turnovers. The Horns took the kickoff and drove the ball over for six points. The Wildcatters were held off and the Wildcats were attempt­ ing to build up the score to get a higher rating in the State polls, cashing in on the option pitch. The drive was highlighted by a 39 yard touchdown run Carlos Flores and runs of 26 yards and 12 yards by Justin Bledsoe. The fumbles were a result of a pitch to the tailback. The Horns lost and were back in business, giving 63 yards on five plays, highlighted by a 44 yard touchdown run Carlos Flores on the option pitch. Orlando Alvarez kicked the extra point and the score was tied at 7-7 with 4:42 left in the first quarter.

The Shorthorns kicked off and Wink moved the ball only to be held & forced to punt it away. The Horns were on the march, again, keeping the ball over five minutes on a 9 yard drive that took 12 plays with Brook­ staking the ball on the option and scoring from the nine yard line. Again, Alvarez’s kick was good and the Purple & White had a 14-7 lead. The Horns kicked off and the Wildcats fumbled the ball, but it was recovered by the Or­ ange and Black. They drove the ball to the Wink 8 yard line before Jo­ se Ramirez ran it in from there. Ar­ mando Ramirez kicked the extra point and the score was tied at 14-14, with six minutes left in the half.

The Horns took the kickoff and drove the ball for six yards before being stopped at the Wink 2 yard line, giving the ball to the Wild­ catters. Only one play was made on the drive, a fumble handed over to the entire student body in this season. We can not play and expect to win until we read and practice well on both offense and defense. The defense played well at times but the spirit was broken after so many turnovers. The Horns took 19 first downs and had 341 yards rushing (the highest yardage in the season) and 21 yards passing for a total of 362 yards in offense. Neil Martinez led the Horns in rushing, gaining 107 yards on 20 carries. Wink had 84 in 34 carries and Carlos Flores ran for 87 yards on only nine carries. Orlando Alvarez kicked the ball out of bounds, giving the ball to the Wildcats.

The center, Jaime Lujan and Mike Madrid. Brooks Thode in­ curred a penalty on a key Wink drive.

The records are a result of a lack of discipline in the school and finishing the run techniques. The Horns are 1-1-1 in district play after the opening second half kickoff. The Wildcatters had the ball for seven plays, gaining 43 yards before a Rug­ glo pass was picked off. The Horns had six yards of rushing and gaining 13 yards before another fumble occurred. This time Wayne Alvarez picked the ball up and ran 60 yards for the score. The Horns succeeded by marching 39 yards before turn­ ing the ball over again, which led to yet another Wink touch­ down.

Marfa fell 62-14 to the Cats to start moving., the football. The drive was highlighted by a 44-yard fumble on the second play after dropping a pass on the first, Wink moved the ball only to be held & forced to punt it away. Before another fumble occurred. This time Wayne Alvarez picked the ball up and ran 60 yards for the score. The Horns succeeded by marching 39 yards before turn­ ing the ball over again, which led to yet another Wink touch­ down.

The defense played well at times but the spirit was broken after so many turnovers. The Horns took the kickoff and drove the ball over for six points. The Wildcatters were held off.

WINK ATTITUDE!! How do we teach a "Winning Attitude"? How do we teach our children to strive 110% in all that they do? How do we instill the burning desire to be “Number ONE”? How do we show that others de­ pend on us to do our best? Our students have all the tools and abilities to succeed in school and in life. Our students are no different than thousands of other students in Texas. Your chil­ dren, we the teachers, are some of the best kids I have ever had the oppor­ tunity to work with. The kids are the best kids of our classroom. They are the best kids of our school. They are the best kids of our district. They are the best kids of our community. Lady Horns advance to state volleyball playoffs

MARFA - The Lady varsity Horns finished second in district volleyball play after falling to the Fort Davis Indians during their final match on Friday night.

After a day full of spirit, concluding with a pep rally, the Lady Horns appeared ready to make their stand against the Indians. The Horns were defeated to second in district play after a second round of competition.

In game one, the Horns regrouped and jumped out to a 5-0 lead, due primarily to Marfa's inability to receive the serve, the Horns were outdone in district.

Our keys on defense instead of our ability inside the core, including with a pep rally, the night.

The Lady Horns will pick up a couple of practice games before heading into the first round of the state playoffs in bi-district action.

Tentatively, the bi-district game will be against Fort Hancock on November 3 or 5.

Lady JV volleyball Horns cap season with 14-13 record

MARFA - Under the leadership of Junior Christina Aguilar, the Lady JV Horns ended their volleyball season with a 14-13 record on Tuesday.

On Tuesday, the JV Horns played against Fort Davis JV.

Because of great serving from Sophia Aguilar and Junior Sarah Fellows, the team was able to take the first game 15-6.

There was excellent hitting by Sophia Aguilar, Vangundy Cordova and Yvonne Villarreal. Jessica DeCocq had an outstanding game with excellent hitting. Teresita Villarreal also had a great game at the net, setting the tone for the season. There was a lot of errors. Jessi Biondo and Vanessa Gonzalez were the only scoring servers.

In the Fort Stockton Tournament, on October 8, the eighth grade Lady JV Horns played Fort Stockton 15-1 and 15-3. It was mostly a bump game, with a lot of errors. Jessi Biondo and Vanessa Gonzalez were the only scoring servers.

On October 17, the eighth grade team played host for Fort Stockton. They lost 15-2 and 15-4.

Despite the change, the girls remained focused and continued to work hard.

Lady JV Homecoming. I look for a good game because our players were able to get in a couple of good spikes. The seventh grade team lost to Fort Stockton 15-3 and 15-3.
